ABOUT LAS VOCES

The HILL's Las Voces -

Guest Speaker Series is a biannual event that provides the latest insights into the most important business and employment issues for the Hispanic Community. The series showcases national Hispanic thought leaders that share their business acumen, leadership experience and diversity points of view. The series promotes an engaging information exchange of professional and/or personal experiences. The talks are representative of various industries and business practices that educate the audience on marketplace trends and leadership initiatives that impact business results.
